

NAVYA NARAYANAN

HIGH SCHOOL / JUNIOR

ABOUT ME

I'm Navya and I am passionate about storytelling, media, policy, and government. I combine creativity with strategy to craft meaningful content and impactful solutions, always aiming to bring purpose and value to my work.

EDUCATION

2023-2027 / High School Student

Palo Alto High School - Grade 11 (current)

EXPERIENCE

Co-Author of Children's Book, If Imagination Could Travel

- Collaborated with my co-author on a full-length illustrated children's book
- Self-initiated project with a friend and mentor
- Set to be published in February 2025

News Editor & Webmaster for The Paly Voice

- Contributes to high school's online-news publication
- Responsible for writing 14 stories every semester
- Responsible for editing news stories and teaching new staffers the basics of journalistic writing
- Maintains website and keeps track of analytics

Asia Deskhead for Agora Magazine

- In charge of Asia & Pacific section for high school's foreign affairs magazine
- Edits and advises all staffers writing for the Asia & Pacific section

AWARDS

2x President's Gold Volunteer Service Award from AmeriCorps - October 2024 & May 2025

Palo Alto High School - Grade 10

USA Taekwondo Nationals - July 2024

Bronze Medal

Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) Taekwondo Nationals - July 2024

Bronze Medal

Science Excellence Award in Chemistry Honors

Palo Alto High School - Grade 10

INTERESTS

- Passionate about media and storytelling, especially journalism and creative writing
- Interested in public service and government, with a strong passion for civic engagement and community advocacy
- Interested in leadership, community service, and making a positive impact